

Released Prisoner or Inmate Driver's License and Identification Card Information Sheet

Duplicate

If you have been incarcerated within the last 90 days and you have an unexpired Nevada non-commercial driver's license, driver authorization card, or identification card, you may obtain a duplicate card at no cost. This does not apply to Commercial Driver's License. You will need to present the following:

1. DMV-002 App for Driving Privilege or ID Card.
2. DP-190 Request for Waiving Duplicate Fees (one-time waiver of duplicate fees. Waived fees will be collected at time of renewal, if employed).
3. Certificate of recent release in one of the following formats:
 - Certificate of Released Prisoner from the Nevada Department of Corrections (NDOC); or
 - An equivalent document from an out-of-state institution, approved by DMV; or
 - A letter from a Nevada county, city or town jail that lists at least, your name, date of birth and your date of your release.

Renewal

If you were recently released from prison and you would like to renew your Nevada non-commercial driver's license, driver authorization card or identification card, you will need to present the following:

1. DMV-002 App for Driving Privilege or ID Card.
2. Previously issued driver's license, identification card or a Certificate of Released Prisoner from NDOC, if available.
3. If you do not have the items listed above the DMV will attempt to determine your identity based on personal information on file, a previous photo and signature.
4. Immigration documents, if applicable.
5. Applicable fees if required.

Original

If you were recently released from prison and you would like to obtain a Nevada non-commercial driver's license, driver authorization card or identification card, you will need to present the following:

1. DMV-002 App for Driving Privilege or ID Card.
2. NDOC Identification Card (if you were not issued an NDOC ID card you will need to present identity documents such as, a US Birth Certificate or US Passport).
3. Social Security document, if applicable.
4. Immigration documents, if applicable.
5. 2 proofs of your Nevada residential address.
6. Applicable fees if required.

Please see the back of this form for fees and additional information concerning document requirements.

The NDOC card cannot be used to prove identity for a Real ID card.

Any differences in information pertaining to identity or social security will require additional documentation and may include but is not limited to a certified birth certificate, passport, marriage certificate, court order, or Social Security card.

Please visit dmv.vt.com for additional information or contact our Call Center at the numbers listed on the front of this information sheet.

EXPIRATION*

Applicants age 65 and older will receive a license with a 4-year expiration upon renewal.

All new applicants under age 65 will receive a license with an 8-year expiration upon renewal.

All new applicants, regardless of age, will receive an identification card with an 8-year expiration date.

*There are certain situations where a 4 or 8 year expiration date on a driver’s license or identification card is not possible. Please contact your local DMV for more information if you have a medical condition that could affect your driving ability, are a registered sex offender, or if you have immigration documents.
